Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in its resolutions 62/209 of 19 December 2007 and 63/233 of 19 December 2008, decided to convene a High-level United Nations Conference on South-South Cooperation in 2009 on the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of the adoption of the Buenos Aires Plan of Action for Promoting and Implementing Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries. The General Assembly entrusted the President of the High-level Committee on South-South Cooperation to undertake the necessary consultations with Member States in preparation for the Conference. As confirmed in resolution 64/1, the Government of Kenya will host the Conference at the highest possible level from 1 to 3 December 2009 in Nairobi. Under the theme, "Promotion of South-South cooperation for development", the Conference will provide the opportunity for States Members of the United Nations and the entire United Nations development system to assess the progress made, reaffirm goals and commitments, share best practices and lessons learned and identify obstacles encountered as well as actions and initiatives to overcome them and important measures for further implementation in addition to covering new challenges and emerging issues. Furthermore, the Conference will provide an opportunity for policymakers to strategize how best to tap into the rapidly growing capacities in the South and to harness the present momentum of South-South cooperation towards reaching internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals.

2. The arrangements set out below have been formulated on the basis of General Assembly resolution 64/1, taking into account the report of the President of the High-level Committee on South-South Cooperation (A/63/741) of 26 February 2009.

3. The following annexes are attached to the present note:

- (a) Annex I: Provisional rules of procedure;
- (b) Annex II: Proposed timetable for the work of the Conference.

Election of officers

4. Rule 6 of the provisional rules of procedure provides that the Conference shall elect from among the representatives of participating States the following officers: a President, 24 Vice-Presidents and a Rapporteur-General, as well as a Chairman of the Working Committee if established in accordance with rule 46. These officials shall be elected on the basis of ensuring the representative character of the Bureau of the Conference. Its composition shall be based on that of the General Committee of the General Assembly of the United Nations at its sixty-fourth session. In accordance with tradition for similar conferences, the Conference may wish to elect the Head of State of the host country as its President. The Conference may also elect such other officers as it deems necessary for the performance of its functions.

5. Rule 11 provides that the Bureau of the Conference shall consist of the President, the Vice-Presidents, the Rapporteur-General and the Chairman of the Working Committee if established in accordance with rule 46. The 24 Vice-Presidents and the Rapporteur-General shall be distributed according to the following geographical pattern: four representatives from African States, five from Asian States, five from Eastern European States, five from Latin America and Caribbean States and five from Western Europe and other States.

Adoption of the rules of procedure

6. The Conference will have before it for adoption the provisional rules of procedure (annex I).

Adoption of the agenda

7. The Conference will also have before it for adoption the provisional agenda.

II. Organization of work

A. Dates and venue

8. The Conference will be held at the United Nations Office, Gigiri, Nairobi, from 1 to 3 December 2009.

B. Allocation of items

9. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 64/1, it is proposed that the Conference organize its work around five plenary meetings and two interactive multi-stakeholder round tables on the subthemes of (a) Strengthening the role of the United Nations system in supporting South-South and triangular cooperation; and (b) South-South and triangular cooperation for development: complementarities, specificities, challenges and opportunities (see annex II). It is proposed that items 1 to 7, 10 and 11 of the provisional agenda be considered in plenary meetings. Discussions on the outcome document of the Conference, under item 8, will be held in the Working Committee, if established, under rule 46 of the rules of procedure, while the general debate, under item 7, will be held in plenary meetings. The first round table, under item 9, will be held concurrently with the Working Committee, if established, and with the afternoon plenary meeting of the second day. The second round table will be held concurrently with the Working Committee, if established, on the morning of the third day.

C. Plenary meetings

10. It is proposed that two plenary meetings be held on the first day, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. On the second day, it is proposed to again have two plenary meetings, one in the morning from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and another from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. On the third day, it is proposed to hold a plenary meeting from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. All plenary meetings will be held in Conference Room 1. At these meetings, Heads of State or Government, ministers and heads of delegation attending the Conference will be able to make formal statements, on the understanding that the principle of precedence will be strictly applied. Each oral statement will be limited to five minutes, although this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts. No delegation will be allowed to speak more than once during the general exchange of views. The opening of the list of speakers will be announced in the Journal of the United Nations.

11. The opening plenary meeting during the morning of Tuesday, 1 December, will begin with the formal opening of the Conference by the Secretary-General of the Conference, followed by the election of the President. Opening statements will be made by the President of the Conference, the United Nations Secretary-General and the Secretary-General of the Conference. The meeting will also consider all procedural and organizational matters, including the adoption of the rules of procedure and the agenda, the election of officers other than the President, the establishment of the Working Committee, the appointment of the members of the Credentials Committee and arrangements for the preparation of the report of the Conference.

12. The closing plenary in the afternoon of Thursday, 3 December, is expected to conclude with the adoption of the outcome document and of the report of the Conference.

D. Working Committee

13. Under the terms of General Assembly resolution 64/1, an intergovernmentally agreed outcome should be finalized by 30 November 2009.

14. Pursuant thereto, the President of the General Assembly has initiated informal consultations with all Member States under the leadership of two facilitators, with a view to producing a draft outcome document. Should an agreement on the outcome document not be reached by 30 November 2009, it is proposed that a working committee be established by the Conference to conclude the process. If established, it is proposed that the Working Committee meet from the afternoon of Tuesday, 1 December, through the morning of Thursday, 3 December, if required. In accordance with the provisions of rule 50, the Working Committee will elect its own officers. It is recommended that agreement be reached on the slate of candidates for posts falling within the ambit of the Working Committee before the opening of the Conference, thus permitting elections by acclamation and dispensing with the requirement of a secret ballot. To that end, it is suggested that the President of the General Assembly may wish to nominate the two co-facilitators, appointed for the substantive preparation of the Conference, to assume the role of the co-chairmen, subject to the approval of the Conference.

E. Round tables

15. It is proposed that the two interactive multi-stakeholder round tables be held, respectively, on Wednesday, 2 December, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., and Thursday, 3 December, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. All the round tables will be held in Conference Room 3.

16. Pursuant to General Assembly resolution 64/1, it is proposed that the round tables be held under the overall theme "Promotion of South-South cooperation for development" and address the main issues before the Conference, as follows:

(a) Round table 1: Strengthening the role of the United Nations system in supporting South-South and triangular cooperation;

(b) Round table 2: South-South and triangular cooperation for development: complementarities, specificities, challenges and opportunities.

17. Each round table will be chaired by one of the Vice-Presidents to be appointed by the President of the Conference. High-level officials from the relevant institutional stakeholders will be invited to act as moderators and/or panellists in the round tables. Each round table will include presentations by high-level multi-stakeholder panellists and a moderator. The panel discussion will be followed by an interactive debate among Member States and other relevant stakeholders. No list of speakers will be established. Each oral intervention will be limited to three minutes, although this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts.

18. Each round table will be open to participation by representatives of all Member States; representatives of observers, relevant entities of the United Nations system and other accredited intergovernmental organizations; representatives of accredited civil society organizations; and representatives of accredited business sector entities. Each representative may be accompanied by one adviser. The list of non-State participants in the round tables will be established on a first-come, first-served basis. The opening of the inscription of non-State entities for participation in the round tables will be announced in the Journal of the United Nations.

F. Timetable for the work of the Conference

19. The proposed timetable for the work of the Conference is contained in annex II.

G. Organization of meetings

20. The resources available to the Conference allow for five plenary meetings, two round tables and four meetings of the Working Committee (if necessary) with interpretation facilities.

4. If a vote is equally divided, the proposal or motion shall be regarded as rejected.

Rule 36Meaning of the phrase “representatives present and voting”

For the purpose of these rules, the phrase “representatives present and voting” means representatives casting an affirmative or negative vote. Representatives who abstain from voting shall be regarded as not voting.

Rule 37Method of voting

1. Except as provided in rule 44, the Conference shall normally vote by show of hands, except that a representative may request a roll-call, which shall then be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the States participating in the Conference, beginning with the delegation whose name is drawn by lot by the President. The name of each State shall be called in all roll-calls, and its representative shall reply “yes”, “no” or “abstention”.
2. When the Conference votes by mechanical means, a non-recorded vote shall replace a vote by show of hands and a recorded vote shall replace a roll-call. A representative may request a recorded vote, which shall, unless a representative requests otherwise, be taken without calling out the names of the States participating in the Conference.

A representative may move that parts of a proposal be decided on separately. If a representative objects, the motion for division shall be voted upon. Permission to speak on the motion shall be accorded to only two representatives in favour of and two opposing the division. If the motion is carried, those parts of the proposal that are subsequently approved shall be put to the Conference for decision as a whole. If all operative parts of the proposal have been rejected, the proposal shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 41
Amendments

A proposal is considered an amendment to another proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from or revises part of that proposal. Unless specified otherwise, the word “proposal” in these rules shall be regarded as including amendments.

Rule 42
Order of voting on amendments

When an amendment is moved to a proposal, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Conference shall vote first on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom and so on until all the amendments have been put to the vote. Where, however, the adoption of one amendment necessarily implies the rejection of another amendment, the latter shall not be put to the vote. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon.

Rule 43
Order of voting on proposals

1. If two or more proposals, other than amendments, relate to the same question, they shall, unless the Conference decides otherwise, be voted on in the order in which they were submitted. The Conference may, after each vote on a proposal, decide whether to vote on the next proposal.
2. Revised proposals shall be voted on in the order in which the original proposals were submitted, unless the revision substantially departs from the original proposal. In that case, the original proposal shall be regarded as withdrawn and the revised proposal shall be treated as a new proposal.
3. A motion requiring that no decision be taken on a proposal shall be put to the vote before a decision is taken on the proposal in question.

ElectionsRule 44

All elections shall be held by secret ballot unless, in the absence of any objection, the Conference decides to proceed without taking a ballot when there is an agreed candidate or slate.

Rule 45

1. When one or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates, in a number not exceeding the number of such places, obtaining in the first ballot a majority of the votes cast and the largest number of votes, shall be elected.
2. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of places to be filled, additional ballots shall be held to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the largest number of votes in the previous ballot, in a number not exceeding twice the number of places remaining to be filled.

Rule 46

Working Committee

The Conference may establish a Working Committee if required, which may set up subcommittees or working groups.

Rule 47

Representation on the Working Committee

Each State participating in the Conference and the European Community may be represented by one representative on the Working Committee established by the Conference. It may assign to the Committee such alternate representatives and advisers as may be required.

Other committees and working groups
